

Labyrinths: Tion, Uqbar, Orbis Tertius, The Garden of Forking Paths, and the Lottery in Babylon

Jorge Luis Borges

Full of wonder, awe, and marvel, the short stories of Argentinean writer Jorge Luis Borges are like fine jewels, deeply colored and creatively faceted. Borges' mark on the world of fiction, poetry, and other literary forms was so powerful that we now call elusive, self-referential, and multi-layered writing Borgesian; his short stories are particularly fine examples of this master's craft.

Dates: Thursdays: 10/9, 10/16, 10/23

Time: 6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Cost: $15 per session ($45)

*Spaces are limited so please register in advance, in person.
There is no charge for first-time participants.*